To whom it may concern:

I am writing to formally oppose the action to disallow and expunge the two claims listed below.

Name of Bankruptcy Court	Name of Debtors/Case Number	Claim Number	Title of Objection	Name of Claimant	Basis for Claim
United States Bankruptcy Court Southern District of New York	Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., et al., Debtors (08-13555)	34713	Omnibus Objection to Claims (Late-Filed Claims)	John Palchynsky	Employee Compensation
United States Bankruptcy Court Southern District of New York	Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., et al., Debtors (08-13555)	34712	Omnibus Objection to Claims (Late-Filed Claims)	John Palchynsky	Employee Compensation

The above claims should not be disallowed and expunged for the following reasons:

The two claims listed above were submitted on time and mailed to the correct address using the United States Postal Service "Express Mail" service. The guaranteed delivery date was September 21st, 2009, one day before the claim deadline date.

I have included as evidence, the original USPS "Express Mail" form and a letter from the United States Postal Service Montville New Jersey Postmaster.

Thank you.

Re: Late Mail

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in regards to a piece of mail addressed to The EPIQ Bankruptcy Solutions, LLC, 757 Third Avenue, 3rd Fl., NY, NY 10017. The correspondence in question was mailed from the Montville Post Office on September 19, 2009 by John Polchynsky 16 Highland Avenue, Montville, NJ 07045 Express Mail #EH 010250365 US. This piece of mail was sent Express Mail by the addressee, to be guaranteed next day deliver, so that it would arrive on time, before the deadline.

Unfortunately, the piece never made it by the guarantee time which made the Express Mail late arrival to your company. I am sending you a copy of the Express Mail label in hopes that you will consider Mr. Polchynsky's request even though it was past the due date.

Thanking you in advance in this matter.
